About the Elective

Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA) is one of the largest global entity for Management Accountants since 1919. A CIMA professional has the privilege to be entitled to the CGMA (Chartered Global Management Accountant) designation, powered by CIMA and AICPA, two of world's most prestigious entities. In 2017, members of CIMA and AICPA formed the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants to unite and strengthen the accounting profession globally.

Representing an influential network of more than 650,000 members and students in management and public accounting, the Association prepares accountants for today's challenges and tomorrow's opportunities. Management accounting is much more than number crunching – management accountants use their training to combine financial and non-financial data to paint a complete picture of the business. It tests Enterprise, Performance and Finance and has 3 case studies. The syllabi is developed in consultation with the employer partners in Fortune 2000 companies and helps profession seekers as well as entrepreneurs.
